Dear Parents and Students:

Some of the most exciting and educationally enriching aspects of one's high school experience take place outside the classroom and after regular school hours. Yeshivat Frisch encourages each of our students to explore and develop his/her talents in the areas of artistic creativity, journalism and writing, athletics, community service and Chessed, scientific discovery, politics and so much more.

Each year as the adults at Frisch interact with our students, we are impressed by their accomplishments, leadership, spirit and initiative. We invite and encourage you not only to be involved in some of the activities described in this co-curricular guide but also to come to us with ideas for new activities and endeavors. Some of the best, most successful activities are initiated each year by students.

Please do not hesitate to contact Rabbi Joshua Schulman, Director of Co-Curricular Activities, with new ideas or to ask for help or advice to get yourself involved in one or more of these wonderful opportunities.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Eli Ciner
Principal
